

COPENHAGEN

STRAIGHT FORWARD

Many mistake the fact that simplistic design requires less effort, but quite to the contrary, it's the simple silhouettes and uncomplicated structures that change the way design is perceived and experienced. It is this philosophy that dominates the persona of our next influential city: Copenhagen. Blonde wood, open shapes and brushed-gold finishes are constant qualities synonymous with Denmark's capital. Barber & Osgerby illustrate the art of this finesse in the Hula stool, which by appearances is seemingly straightforward, but upon further investigation, offers itself as either fixed seating or a rocking stool. But perhaps the father of modern Danish design, Finn Juhl, whose colorful sideboard is shown, sums up quintessential Copenhagen style best of all with his clean-lined furnishings. "One cannot create happiness with beautiful objects," he says, "but one can spoil quite a lot of happiness with bad ones."

1. Lucid Rug in Dew, Maya Collection From $798 / calvinklein.com
2. Up Up Light Fleur Jacob by Emily Green + Dale Hardiman / $249 / emilygreen.net
3. Finn Juhl Sideboard + Tray Unit Price upon request / onecollection.com
4. Brass Bike / Price upon request / vanheeschdesign.com
5. Hula Stool by Edward Barber and Jay Osgerby Price upon request / cappellini.it/en
6. 17 oz. Beach Cottage Bottle / $35 / swellbottle.com
7. Trousdale Cabinet Knob in Light Antique Brass by Tim Campbell Price upon request / sabaxter.com
8. H8 Headphones by Jakob Wagner / $499 / beoplay.com
9. Peter Jensen Penelope Collection Prefall 2015 / peterjensen.co.uk
10. Paz Two Strap Sandal / $175 / loefflerandall.com
11. Scandi Ball Wall Sconce with Brass Backplate by Nicci Green $1195 / articolarchitecturalighting.com.au